You sparked so much I had to close my eyes to see you standing there

Your lovers they all came and went
They hid behind curtains just to see you pass
But you had stuck your soul away, so scared of scars

B7 Em
Oh, lala Maria, then you were so scared of scars
B7 Em D/F#
Oh, lala Maria, now you've healed your scars with far away

G Am7
You're probably pleasing some other man
D G D/F# Em D
Besides a little pain that don't bring no grieve
G Am7 D G D/F# Em D/F#
I only wish, woman I know I wish in vain that I would get the same chance once again

Oh, lala Maria, the time wasn't right
Oh, lala Maria, them spirits were too tight

The tree outside my window, it has lost all its leaves
So fragile, bare and naked, it feels the same as me
Hey baby, the pretty plants you left behind they're all doing fine
If you want them you can get them anytime

Oh, lala Maria, anytime you like
Oh, lala Maria, anytime is fine

With your Colosseum-eyes and your fairy mink
Your updated Jack Kerouac-talk
Woman, you had me on the run
Long before I had the feet to walk
