

Tonight's The Night

Intro: D | D | D | D

Couplet 1:

I put my hair into style and over in the corner
I hear Jerome murmur: 'You look dandy.'
So I lean out some more out of that balcony door while the radio plays soft some forgotten serenade
There's a tremble in the air, as down there all them folks rush home
For when the sun sets on the city, nobody wants to be alone
And me I got that shaky feeling in my bones again
D | D

Couplet 2:

I feel swift as a summer breeze by the time I'm out on the street again
My high-heel shoes clicking-clacking to that rusty beat again
That old widow from next door she asks when will I come see her again
But I say, no no no mama, this time I got to see some better friend
And that lovely lady doing her sidewalk promenade she smiles:
Hurry up boy, don't be late....because

Refrein:

Mama, tonight's the night
We're gonna make it, we're gonna reach out for them stars tonight
Oh baby we'll explode just like some super hydroxygen bomb
And our tango ain't gonna stop till our bloodshot eyes get blinded by that morning sun

Couplet 3:

By the time I reach your avenue the sky is red white and blue and I'm already flying
I bopped one of those little white pills Jerome said they were really worthwhile trying
I know that up in your room your in front of your flattering mirror
You wearing a red ribbon and some rouge, a pair of dancing shoes
It's got to be a winner
Oh baby red hot warm watery is the kiss that lingers on my lips
As we daze off into them city lights

Refrein 2x - Sax en gitaarsolo: D | G | A | A 4x - Herhalen: D | G | A | A
