Couplet 2:

Well, the ones that work hard, they get nothing
And the ones that don't do nothing, they get it all
While all they do is sit on their fat ass
And laughing at the people breaking their backs
Well dressed up in tailored suits against patched up rags

G D A G D E
I said: 'Lord, when will this be over, Lord please lead us on.'

Brothers beating brothers while their sisters standing laughing at that
The rats and the vultures, for them it's paradise
They can pick on the dead bodies, they can eat the funeral rice
